Your Tour Package

Thursday- May 16, 2019

Welcome spring in high style with more than 130,000 flowers, blooming in the gardens. At Biltmore Blooms, the estate's Annual Festival of Flowers, the color and fragrance of orchids and thousands of spring bulbs steal the show. We will take our morning break in at the Kentucky Artisan Center . Dinner tonight is an experience you won't forget...a true culinary escape—an authentic farm-to-table dining experience at The Farm. We will overnight the next TWO nights in the Historic Biltmore Village – a quaint shopping and restaurant district -a destination unlike any other. D

Friday- May 17, 2019

Celebrate Spring in a big way today with a spectacular display of colorful blooms across Biltmore Estate – George Vanderbilt's magnificent Biltmore Gardens. The bright colors in the gardens are brought inside with an opulent display of tropical plants and lavish flowers inside Biltmore house. An extra bonus is a NEW special exhibition inside Biltmore House, A Vanderbilt House Party: a brand new audio-guided tour, using 360-degree sound techniques. The narrations are based on those who lived and worked in the Biltmore House. We will also have time to visit Antler Hill Village and the winery. B

Saturday – May 18, 2019

We will depart this morning and make a mystery, before arriving home this evening. B, L
